This is an ideal role for a bright caring sensitive female, previous acting experience is not necessary, the key to this role is the genuine ability to engage an “old friend” in personal conversation to reveal what happened in missing years.

The role is for a female appearing to be 25 to 40 years of age and close to 1.7m tall, cast as a previous acquaintance (friend) of the gentleman meeting again by chance after a long period. They engage in ongoing conversations about his life's ups, downs and successes. There is no romance element it's just a sensitive caring friendship.

This film is currently being scripted by our team and is expected to start shooting soonest mid 2026. It's a story about an Asian gentleman (lead role, already cast) coming to the UK as a child without original parents. He struggles and strives through ups and downs and eventually achieved outstanding excellence and much love in his community. Essentially a feel good story.

To help visualise genuine interest and natural responses the friend will only have a brief outline script for these filmed scenes, the friend will discover the story for the first time directly from the gentleman in conversation and in the process reveal the story to the audience with it's emotional turns.

Shooting is all UK at real locations (no studio), most likely to happen on weekends to suit the overall teams commitments and availability. Transport is included as is the friends dressing to go out wardrobe, yet to be decided in consultation with the “friend” role holder, see image for an indication.
